

Name: _____ Class: _____

Earth Movements

1. What is an earthquake ?
 - a. a series of volcanoes
 - b. a mountain range
 - c. a sudden movement of the Earth's crust
 - d. a suddent rock fall
2. Which of the following can occur because of a volcanic eruption ?
 - a. earthquake
 - b. landslide
 - c. formation of new mountains
 - d. all of the above
3. California is crossed over several miles by the San Andreas Fault. How does this affect California ?
 - a. leads to intense sunshine during the summer
 - b. leads to several earthquakes each year
 - c. affects the migration of birds
 - d. causes a lot of strong winds
4. Which of the following can occur because of a volcanic eruption ?
 - a. earthquake
 - b. landslide
 - c. formation of new mountains
 - d. all of the above
5. Which of the following is most likely to experience a landslide ?
 - a. hillside
 - b. top of a plateau
 - c. plain
 - d. top of a mountain
6. How are people affected by earthquakes ?

7. What should people do in the event of an earthquake ?

1. What is an earthquake ?
 - a. a series of volcanoes
 - b. a mountain range
 - c. a sudden movement of the Earth's crust
 - d. a suddent rock fall
2. Which of the following can occur because of a volcanic eruption ?
 - a. earthquake
 - b. landslide
 - c. formation of new mountains
 - d. all of the above
3. California is crossed over several miles by the San Andreas Fault. How does this affect California ?
 - a. leads to intense sunshine during the summer
 - b. leads to several earthquakes each year
 - c. affects the migration of birds
 - d. causes a lot of strong winds
4. Which of the following can occur because of a volcanic eruption ?
 - a. earthquake
 - b. landslide
 - c. formation of new mountains
 - d. all of the above
5. Which of the following is most likely to experience a landslide ?
 - a. hillside
 - b. top of a plateau
 - c. plain
 - d. top of a mountain

6. How are people affected by earthquakes ?

7. What should people do in the event of an earthquake ?
